

Incoming!!!! Always another Cocker Spaniel to rescue

Cocker Spaniel Rescue is inundated week in and week out with dogs. We need to lower our headcount because, as usual, we do not have the resources — foster spots, boarding spots, money for boarding and money for vet bills — to help every dog who comes our way.

Over the four week period between June 22 and July 21, we were contacted about 38 dogs and accepted 20, over 50%. During the same period we adopted out 25 dogs.

As of July 20, 2008 we had 102 dogs in the program. Not all are posted on the website because many are not ready for adoption or recently entered the program.

We need foster homes to get dogs out of boarding, both for their well being and to use that money for veterinary expenses.
